Let us, as liberty loving American citizens, refer to our Constitution. In the first article of that instrument we read that "No title of nobility shall be granted by the United States"-the spirit and meaning of which is that no special honors or privileges shall be enjoyed by one citizen or class at the expense of the others. Yet it is seriously proposed to create the title of Captaiu-General for ex President Grant, and tax the nation $50,000 a year to support the rank. Surely, we are tending toward a nobility never intended by the revolutionary patriots, who-fought Great Britain to establish their freedom from taxation to support a titled aristocracy. It would seem to be almost in order for some of the stalwart Republican leaders of to-day to declare the War of Independence a failure, and pass a platform resolution censuring our forefathers for their mistaken rebelli on against King payment of taxes should be noted by all an interesting speaker.
